Webinar on “Understanding the Multifaceted Perspective on Development” on 14th JUNE, 2021.

Description: During this webinar, the resource person shared the thoughts on the need for development has been of utmost importance, be it for an individual, for a community, for a nation or for the entire world. However, this concept of development varies with respect to space and time and this makes the entire development process controversial. In the current scenario, we see that all the nations are trying their best to continue with their earlier development strategies. However, the success stories have been mixed. This lecture aims to throw light on how one word 'development' can have multiple meaning for different groups and what can be done to accommodate the varying opinions and perspectives. He has also encouraged the students to question the different perspective of development. It was overall a very interesting webinar.

Program: For this Webinar, registration link using MS Teams and password was created. The link was circulated among students and faculties of different colleges and departments. More than 85 active participants both Teaching Faculty Members and Students have participated. At the beginning, Miss Akanksha Jain (6th Semester student-BA) gave a welcome address to the participants and after the presentation she delivered the vote of thanks too. After the webinar the attended participants were asked to fill a feedback form after which we have issued an e-certificate to all the participants. From the WEBINAR, the participants had the opportunity to know about the changing perspective of development and how it has different meaning to different section and group of people.

Webinar On The Acceptance Of Alternative Sexualities In Indian Societies And Why It Is Dangerous To Hide Who You Are, On 12th Of July, 2021.

Description: During this webinar, the resource person shared the thoughts on the need for ideological change in accepting humans as they are. The webinar focuses on accepting all sexualities and believing that sexual identities are necessary not only for others but for them too who claims themselves from a different gender identity. And only with this acceptance a development is possible, be it for an individual, for a community, for a nation or for the entire world. However, this concept of alternative sexualities in Indian societies is always there since time immemorial still people feel it as a bad luck or a bad deed in the family/society. In the current scenario, we see that all the nations are trying their best to continue with their acceptance of these LGBTQ community still it is a controversial issue everywhere. However, the success stories have been mixed. This lecture aims to throw light on how one word as 'gay', 'lesbian', 'homosexual', 'transgender' can accommodate the varying opinions and perspectives in the society. She has also encouraged the students to accept every individual despite their gender and view them as a citizen of earth. It was overall a very interesting webinar.

Program: For this Webinar, registration link using MS Teams and password was created. The link was circulated among students and faculties of different colleges and departments. More than 100 active participants both Teaching Faculty Members and Students have participated. At the beginning, Miss Akanksha Jain (6th Semester student-BA) gave a welcome address to the participants and after the presentation she delivered the vote of thanks too. After the webinar the attended participants were asked to fill a feedback form after which we have issued an e-certificate to all the participants. ## Seminar/ Paper presentation by students.

The paper presentation helped the students to structure their presentation in a relatable manner such that the subsequent slide builds upon the information from the previous one. The students had to work in groups which had enabled them to work as a team of 5-6 members in each team. The 3rd semester students had presented paper on topics such as

- Aihole – heritage
- Agrahara system
- Kalamukhas and Virashaivism

Movie Screening "The Man Who Knew Infinity"

About the movie: The Man Who Knew Infinity, Dev Patel plays math genius Srinivasa Ramunujan. From a town in India and with limited formal training in mathematics, Ramunujan made contributions to Number Theory and infinite series that are still used by mathematicians today. After Ramanujan drafted letters to leading mathematicians at Cambridge University, he spent nearly five years in Cambridge studying with famous English mathematician G. H. Hardy before he tragically contracted tuberculosis and died at the age of 32. The film The Man Who Knew Infinity is touching and brings Ramanujan's personal story to life, and a questions remains in every viewers mind that exactly what Ramanujan discovered and why his work is considered so extraordinary today.

After watching the movie students were being able to understand the life of Ramanujan and his contribution in mathematics of the world.

An educational day trip to DASTKAR BAZAR on 6TH September, 2021

About the Visit: A day trip to Dastkar bazar was organised by the college, we were in constant touch with Mr. Ameer, the concerned person of Dastkar bazar who helped us to give ticket price concession for the college staff and the students. Four teaching staff (Prof. Navaruna Borah, Department of History; Prof. Ragini B, Department of tourism; Prof. Shruthi B.C., Department of Journalism and Prof. Simran Parveen, Department of Political Science) along with thirty students went to the visit. Students from 2nd and 4th semester from both the Departments of History and Tourism had participated who were asked to make a report on the visit by talking to the artisans and learning the history behind their craft. The college had also organised a college vehicle for the pickup and drop facility.

Visit Outcome: From the visit the students were being able to learn about the souvenir trade which is an important part of the tourism industry serving a dual role, first to help improve the local economy, and second to allow visitors to take with them a memento of their visit, ultimately to encourage an opportunity for a return visit, or to promote the local to other tourists as a form of word-of-mouth marketing.

It had also helped the students to know about the history of art and craft in India and how handicrafts had always been a major part of self-dependent economy in India.

Seminar on “Role of Sardar Patel in the integration of the Princely states and unifying India”, 12th November, 2021

Description: During this seminar, the resource person started by sharing his personal experience and thoughts on his journey to India as a refugee, and how India’s concept of secularism and unity had accepted people like him in the nation. Later he explained about the role of Sardar Patel and his continuous efforts on making India a united nation today. This lecture aims to throw light on how one person can have multiple contributions towards India in the integration of the princely states and Unifying the nation at the same time. He has also encouraged the students to respect each other despite their differences and accept the diversity among ourselves. It was overall a very interesting and interacting seminar.

Three - Days Trip to Summer School, Coimbatore On 25th – 27th June, 2022

About the Visit: A three-day trip to Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham in Coimbatore was organised; we were in continual contact with Mr. Shivananda, Assistant Professor, who invited me and my students and assisted us in staying on campus for three days. I went on the trip with four other students from the second semester. My students had participated who had a fantastic time and learnt a lot during the summer school, they were expected to prepare a ppt and a research paper on the visit for which the subjects were supplied by the chosen faculties and understanding the controversial history which was intriguing for the students

Visit Outcome: The kids not only had a great time on campus making friends and socialising, but they also learnt a lot. Students were educated about India's unwritten history as well as how to write research papers. The Amrita trust will publish the articles completed by the students in its journal after they have been finished. Overall, everyone had a terrific time.

Student centric methods such as experiential, participative and problem-solving methodologies ( many of you have submitted in the month of June, in case you want to revise and resend please do so)

- Bridge Course from Department of Tourism conducted in the month of September 2021 for all 1st year BA-Tourism students. The Fundamentals of tourism was taught with PPT and the scope and application of the subject was also explained in detail.
- Internship was conducted from Department of Tourism where 5 Students have undergone Internship training program provided by Yatra.com. The training constituted of 1 month from 21st April 2022 to 20th May 2022.
- Remedial Classes for slow learners. The Department of Tourism has identified and takes special care, who learn more slowly than their peers. It's a challenge in dealing with such slow learners, they are sensitive and self-conscious as they are very well aware of their weakness in comparison with fast learners.
- Compensatory teaching through instructional approach- (Films/Pictures/videos/documentaries, illustrations/case studies etc)
- Individualized Learning Materials
- Audio-Video Materials

B. Dissertation Projects

Final year students prepared a research-based project with respect to their specialization subjects: Finance, Marketing and Human Resource as a part of VI Semester Curriculum. The preparation of the projects gave insight to the students on the various stages of research like identifying problem, framing objectives, preparation of questionnaire, data analysis etc.

C. Case Study Analysis

As a part of III Sem business skill development course students were given five case studies and had to prepare a report of the same. The main objective was to develop thinking and analytical skills among the students. The students were split into groups and put under the guidance of faculty members, who helped them in selection of cases and guided them towards solving the cases and systematically preparing the report.

Learning Outcome: - It helped the students improve their problem-solving skills, being more analytical and to improvise their critical thinking skills.

Problem Solving Methods

ACTIVITY -1 - Understanding Perception through Optical Illusions

An activity was conducted for IV Sem BBA students where they were introduced to different images of optical illusions – the images helped the student to understand how the same image can build different perceptions for different people, it also helped the students understand how perception helps in forming one's personality.

ACTIVITY -2 – SWOT Analysis and BCG Matrix

II Sem BBA students were asked to do SWOT Analysis of a company.

Students had to take a product line of a company and allocate the products in the four quadrants of BCG Matrix.

ACTIVITY – 3 Parampare

Activities conducted for IV Sem students to understand Business Research Methodology

To understand the basics of research as a part of Business Research Methods Subject the students were asked to prepare their family tree. The main objective of the activity was to make the students to know their family origin and to help the students understand the basics of historical and applied research.

ACTIVITY - 4 Story Board

Different methodologies of Research were explained to the students and a storyboard activity was given to the students where they had to

- Click five photos in and around the campus and build a story connecting those pictures.
- Building the story would help them understand the different research methodology that can be put in use to build the story.

ACTIVITY - 5 Ambidexter

To make the students understand applied science theories, an activity was given where the students were asked to research about the psychological facts of writing with both hands, after research they had to apply the learnings by trying to write by both hands.

The observation was that maximum students could write with both hands with the help of psychological facts.

ACTIVITY – 6 Let's get inked

It was observed among the students that, most of the students gave driver's license, Aadhaar card or passport as identity proof when required. Hence research was done to find how many students were registered for voter's card after completing 18 years, it was concluded from the research that very few have registered for availing the voter's ID.

To create an awareness and importance of voter ID card, let's get inked campaign was carried out on voter's day, where many students got themselves registered for voter's ID card.

ACTIVITY – 7 Find your Map – Mocumentary

As a part of creativity and innovation subject to have a better understanding and explore the demographic characteristics of different regions of India, students were given a choice of selecting the state and students were grouped on the basis of selection of the states with similarities. Then the group members had to collect information from each other about their state without asking direct questions.

BCA III SEM A – 2021-22 Teacher Coordinator – Shravani B

Experiential And Participative Learning

Experiential Learning: “The Best Way To Explain It – Is – To Do It”

Participative Learning: “Participation Is One The Best Methods Of Educating”

A Classroom activity was conducted for II year BCA students on 25th of November 2021 in OPERATING SYSTEMS class on the topic “DINING PHILOSOPHER’S PROBLEM”.

To deliver some academic concepts, the best way of teaching technique is involving the students and helping them to learn the concepts in form of an activity. That gives the EXPERIENTIAL AND PARTICIPATIVE LEARNING which makes the tricky and difficult concepts crystal clear.

This topic is included in the ACADEMICS under CLASSIC PROBLEMS OF SYNCHRONIZATION in the subject OPERATING SYSTEMS for III SEM BCA students – CBCS SCHEME, BANGALORE UNIVERSITY.

Dining Philosopher’s Problem:

Problem Statement: The dining philosopher’s problem states that there are 5 philosophers sharing a circular table and they eat and think alternatively. A hungry philosopher may only eat if there are both chopsticks available. Otherwise a philosopher puts down their chopstick and begin thinking again.

Problems of Dining Philosopher:

Prob 1: Deadlock

Prob 2: Starvation

Prob 3: Greedy Philosopher

Solutions For the Stated Problem:

Sol 1: Conductor Solution (Semaphore As Conductor)

Sol 2: Resource Request

Class Room Interaction:

Flipped Classroom

Flipped Learning: “By flipping the classroom” traditional homework is done in class, while listening to class lectures becomes the homework.”

A Flipped Classroom has lot of benefits:

- ➔ Teachers can spend more one-on-one time with their students during a flipped classroom
- ➔ Students can apply in class what they learned at home
- ➔ Students who are more advanced can breeze through the lectures from class time
- ➔ Flipping makes your class transparent
- ➔ Problem-based learning. Class time can be spent working on problems that can last for the duration of a semester
