2. FDP on Moulding Character and Career through story telling on 23.12.2015 in collaboration with Kathalaya

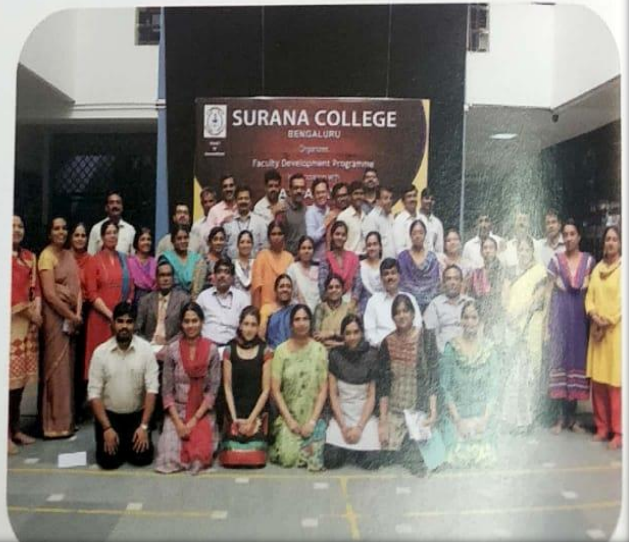

All staff members participated in the Faculty Development program sponsored by the Management. Kathalaya, a Bangalore based agency that trains faculty in the art of teaching thro' story telling conducted a day long event. Ms Geetha Ramanujam taught and discussed the following

1. From the womb to the tomb we need to learn to LISTEN (jumble the letters and we get SILENT)
2. Always know a 'second' language to communicate better.
3. As you listen: retain what is said, recall the important points and retell because when we care, we share.
4. Gurukula taught us the art of oral and aural traditions.
5. There are 2 types of listening: arm chair listening (not very healthy) and emotional listening (when one cares for the need of the student)
6. How to present your subject in class: with confidence, with eye contact, with clarity, with proper voice modulation etc.
