

SURANA COLLEGE

South End Road, Bangalore

The College has constituted Research Committee with various activities of Research like providing research facilities, promotion for publication and research collaboration regularly, conducting IPR activities and orientation of different Indexes (H index, Scopus).Facilitating seminars, workshop pertaining advances to research, by providing lab facilities, student innovation and industry academia programmes in order to build the requirement of academic requirements .

To improve the quality and research culture college has sponsored students and faculty funded projects and provided seed money for attending National, International conferences ,presenting papers and publishing papers in UGC Journals which is beneficial to society, industry by acquainting theoretical and practical skills throughout their career.

LABORATORY

