Education

2021-present (ongoing)	Ph.D. (regular) in Advaita Vedānta , National Sanskrit University, Tirupati. (Thesis due for submission in June 2026). UGC-NET qualified for Assistant Professor in 2022.

2014-2016	M.A. in Philosophy, Manipal University, Manipal.

Work-experience

1. Worked as a middle-school Sanskrit teacher in CBSE syllabus at the reputed Sri Kumaran Children's Academy, Doddakalasangraha, Bengaluru – 560062 from May 24th, 2021 to March 31st, 2022.
2. Currently working as asst. professor at Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham, Bengaluru, for past 3 years, where I am teaching courses on history, Indian philosophy, IKS, cultural studies, Srimad Bhagavadgita, Ramayana, Mahabharata, meditation etc. to B. Tech and M.Tech students.

Skills and Accomplishments

- I have been fortunate to receive intensive traditional training to systematically study and interpret the Prasthāna-Traya Shāṅkara Bhāṣyaṃ and Prakaraṇas and other texts and commentaries of Advaita Vedānta under traditional sāmpradāyika scholars of very high repute. During the course of Acharya degree at N.S.U., I have also studied prakaraṇa-granthas of Nyāya and Mīmāṃsā Shāstra under respective traditional scholars.

Curriculum Vitae

- I have strong Sanskrit grammar and linguistic knowledge, well-grounded in texts like Laghu Siddhānta Kaumudī and Aṣṭādhyāyī. Have studied the Pauṣhpī Prakriyā to Aṣṭādhyāyī directly from Dr. Pushpa Dixit (a highly renowned scholar of Pāṇinian Sanskrit grammar)
- During the course of M.A. in Philosophy at Manipal University, I have studied the fundamental primary texts of Western philosophy, both in continental and analytical traditions, taught by established and highly-published scholars in the field. As part of the degree, I have written a thesis of comparative philosophy titled 'Perception and Embodiment in Merleau-Ponty's Phenomenology of Perception and Dharmarāja Adhvarindra's Vedāntaparibhāṣā'.
- At Manipal, I have received intensive training in philosophical argumentation and academic research, writing and presentation skills and have presented well-received papers at Student Seminars at Manipal Centre for Philosophy and Humanities, Manipal University. I have good experience as a volunteer for administrative assistance in conducting various academic events like international conferences, workshops, public talks, seminars etc. I have also been the chair at some of these events. I have been the main co-ordinator of reading groups and the Film Club at MCPH, Manipal.
- Completely convinced in the power of Sanskrit and traditional learning to lead to optimal cognitive, psychological, moral and spiritual development in learners, I am well-versed and a keen follower of the academic trends in teaching, research and publication in Sanskrit, Indology, Indian Philosophy and History and related fields. At my current job at Amrita Vishwa Vidyapeetham, Chennai campus, I have taught cultural heritage courses to 1st and 2nd year B. Tech students, covering topics of Indian Philosophy, Cultural History and Spirituality. This has greatly helped me hone my skills of engaging effectively with young people on these topics.
- Being interested in philosophy from a very young age, I have pursued a deep and abiding love for it and received the requisite training to be able to publish well-researched and rigorous academic papers and books on the subject. I very much intend research and publication to being an integral part of my academic career. Interest areas for teaching includes Prakaraṇa-grantha-s of Advaita-vedānta, general topics of Indian philosophy, history and cultural heritage, Essence of Vedanta, Srimad Bhagavadgita etc.
