ABOUT ME

I graduated and post-graduated in history from the University of Delhi and then completed an MPhil and a PhD from Jawaharlal Nehru University. My teaching journey began with valuable experiences at prestigious institutions such as PGDAV College, Indraprastha College for Women and Kamala Nehru College, where I honed my skills in teaching papers like Ancient and Modern Indian History, Rise of Modern West, and Historical Methodologies papers, etc. Currently, I am teaching at Maitreyi College. Beyond teaching, I actively pursue research in my areas of specialisation—land reforms and peasant history and socio-cultural history of South Asia.
